The North Carolina Office of School Readiness Announces a Statewide Professional Development Opportunity

The Office of School Readiness in collaboration with Partnership for Inclusion is pleased to announce the following professional development opportunity.

Please share this information with the appropriate staff in your programs.

Please see below for the list of current courses that have been finalized and are open for enrollment.

Please also help get the word out about these educational opportunities by forwarding this information to other colleagues and staff with whom you work. These trainings are appropriate for early childhood and preschool teachers, child care directors, program administrators, and technical assistance providers.

You can visit the PFI web site at www.fpg.unc.edu/~pfi/pages/training.cfm to get additional details about these trainings and/or to download registration forms. Or email PFI at pfi@mail.fpg.unc.edu or sanel@mail.fpg.unc.edu with any questions.
